Christian Living

Christian Living is one of the largest sections in our library. As we all know, being a Christian can be difficult at times. Tough realities such as stress, loneliness, depression, tragedy and death wear us down. A Christian should be kind, faithful, honest, generous and tolerant ... but there are times, when it seems impossible to be “all that”.

But there is “Hope for the troubled heart” (Billy Graham) and we can find a wealth of advice in our library on how to tackle daily life as a Christian: e.g. “Seize the Day” by Tony Campolo.

Phillip Yancey, Marc Lucado, Joni Earrickson Tada and others reflect on a biblical life of the past: “Destiny & Deliverance” allows you to enjoy and learn from spiritual insights from the life of Moses.

And last – but not least! – “Random Acts of Kindness” gives hundreds of ideas to bring caring and Christian kindness back into our daily routines.

Come and browse this section for yourself and enjoy new inspirations for your life.
