

Reading about Women ...

Here is something very special to share with the women of Delta (and men who enjoy reading about women! 😊).

Francine Rivers wrote a series of novellas about five “unlikely women who changed eternity”. Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, Bathsheba and Mary are the characters whose lives, love and destiny can inspire us even today. All of them were chosen by God, and each one of them had to face extraordinary – sometimes scandalous – challenges. To fulfill their calling, these women took great personal risks, showed outstanding courage and had an unfaltering faith in God.

Francine Rivers describes Tamar as a woman of hope, Rahab as a woman of faith, Ruth as a woman of love and Bathsheba as a woman who received unlimited grace. Mary is depicted as a woman of obedience. Each book also contains a “seek and find” section with study materials and additional questions and answers.
